

6 Holm Terrace

, Dromore, BT25 1HN

£95,000

Nestled in the charming area of Holm Terrace, Dromore, this delightful mid-terrace house presents an excellent opportunity for both first-time buyers and those seeking a comfortable family home. The property boasts two well-proportioned bedrooms, providing ample space for relaxation and rest. The inviting reception room serves as a perfect gathering space for family and friends, creating a warm and welcoming atmosphere.

While the house requires some pointing work on the chimney, which does affect the front bedroom, this has been thoughtfully reflected in the asking price, making it an attractive proposition for those looking to invest in a property with potential.

The rear garden offers the opportunity of a private outdoor space, ideal for enjoying sunny days or hosting barbecues. Additionally, the property features a garage at the rear, providing convenient storage or parking options, while off-street parking is available at the front.

Situated close to local amenities, residents will benefit from easy access to shops, schools, and recreational facilities, enhancing the overall appeal of this lovely home. With its combination of comfort, convenience, and potential, this property on Holm Terrace is not to be missed.
