Marc Fegan's View

From the moment you arrive at 17 Toberhewny Lodge, it's clear this is a home that offers real flexibility with no compromise on finish or comfort. The double-storey side extension is a huge bonus, providing genuine independent living space rather than an afterthought, and would suit a wide range of buyers, from growing families to those needing accommodation for a parent or home working. Set on a generous corner site with excellent privacy, ample parking and a high standard of presentation throughout, this is a turnkey home in a highly sought-after area where properties like this don't come up often and rarely stay on the market for long.

Property Summary

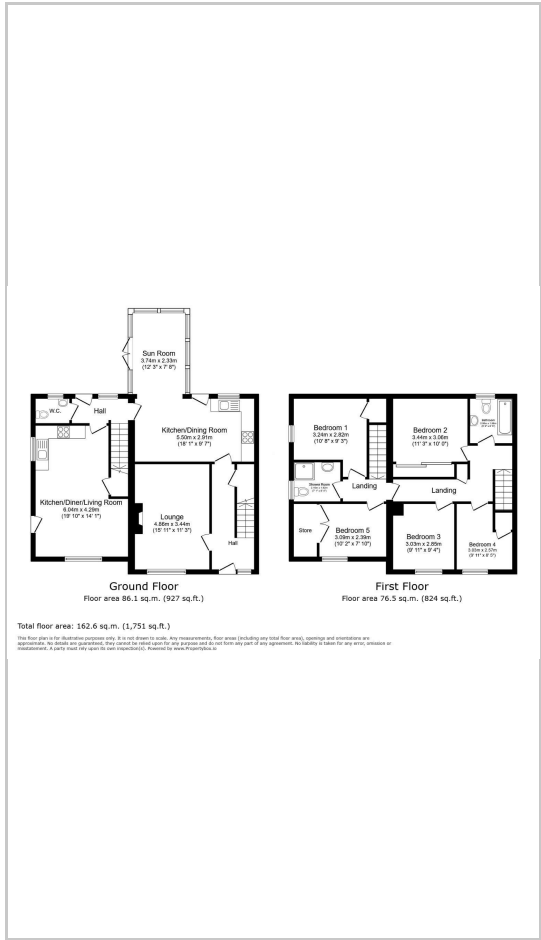

A superbly presented and highly versatile five-bedroom semi-detached home, ideally positioned on a generous and private corner site within this sought-after development just off the Gilford Road. The property
