Marc Fegan's View

Well-presented, fully renovated homes that require little to no additional work continue to be some of the most in-demand properties across the Lurgan market, particularly among first-time buyers and investors seeking strong value and immediate usability. This property stands out due to the quality of its recent upgrades, practical layout, and enclosed outdoor space — features that are increasingly important to modern buyers. Combined with its end-terrace position and convenient communal parking to the rear, it represents a smart purchase for those looking for a home ready to move straight into without compromise.

Property Description

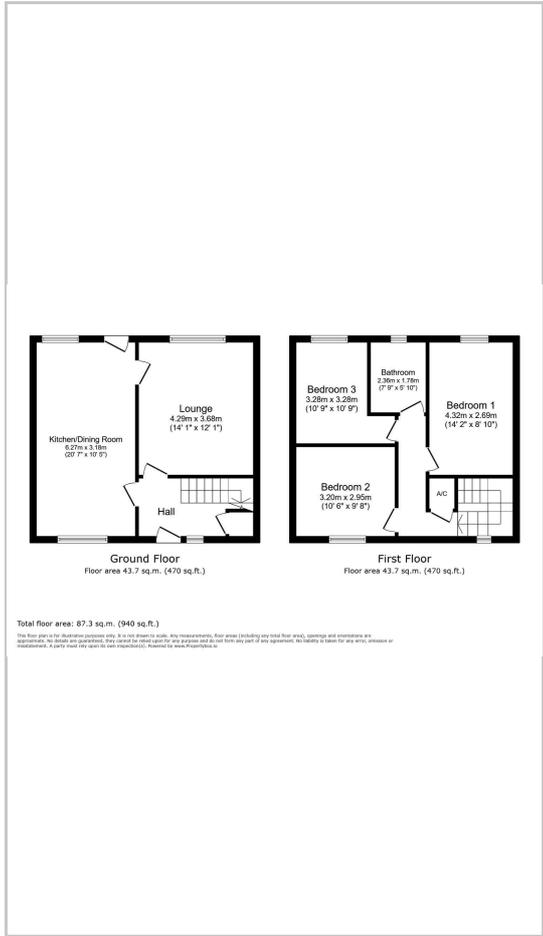

Stylish, fully renovated and beautifully presented throughout, this impressive three-bedroom end-terrace property offers modern living in the popular Taghnevan area of Lurgan.
