Marc Fegan's View

North Street works because businesses work here. There's footfall, passing traffic, and a strong mix of independents already trading well — and this unit gives someone the chance to step straight into that environment without over-complication.

Commercial Unit – North Street, Lurgan

This ground-floor commercial unit sits on one of Lurgan's busiest and most established trading streets, just off the town centre. North Street is well known locally for its mix of independent businesses, steady footfall, and constant passing traffic — the kind of location where people already expect to stop, browse, and buy.
