Marc Fegan's View

This property is a cracking wee home for anyone wanting something simple and ready to walk into. It's been well kept throughout, with a modern shower room put in last year and a bright open-plan layout downstairs that just works for everyday life. The L-shaped kitchen/dining/living space feels homely, the fireplace adds a bit of character, and the double doors out to the back are a real bonus. With both the front and rear fully paved, plus parking and a good shed out the back, it's proper low-maintenance living. Vacant and chain-free too, so it's an easy one for first-time buyers or investors who want a straightforward move.
