TAKING YOU HOME

Seldom do properties come up for sale in the prestigious Ballyhannon Lodge development, with Number 17 creating strong interest as soon as the For Sale board was erected. This beautiful detached family home is crafted from a timeless red brick, and is situated on a corner plot with dual driveways at front and side. For those on the hunt for a spacious home for your family, this one offers five double bedrooms with the master suite featuring a balcony style window and en suite shower room. The family bathroom is fully tiled and comprises of a four piece suite to include separate shower and free standing bath. Relax in your choice of three reception rooms, two with marble fireplaces as a focal point. The open plan kitchen dining has an excellent range of storage units to include larger style cupboards and integrated appliances. A utility and WC completes the ground floor. There is a generous integral garage, with paved driveway providing parking for several cars. The gardens wrap around the property and are laid in lawn with beautiful plants and trees. This home is chain free for your convenience, and will have newly laid carpets included as part of the sale.
