NEW HOME . . . NEW ADVENTURES . . . NEW MEMORIES . . .

Take a moment to enjoy a breath of fresh air while admiring the beauty and tranquility of the open countryside, and it is easy to see how "The Rowan" could become a great place to call home. Situated on the edge of the Village, no details has been overlooked in the quest to ensure that the development would suit any buyers from first time home buyers to the established family looking their forever home.

The Rowan is a stunning development of of Georgian inspired Detached and Semi Detached homes. The thoughtfully designed houses incorporate many attractive features including the use of a natural stone and K Rend (where applicable).

The homes will be finished to an exceptionally high standard using high quality materials and workmanship. What's more, the versatility of this location speaks for itself - from young professionals making daily commute, to growing families or those wishing to downsize.
