Located in Gilnahirk, East Belfast this superb recently refurbished apartment is very well located due to a host of amenities within walking distance. The bustling village of Ballyhackamore is close by and the Castlereagh Hills are also on your doorstep for keen cyclists or runners.

The entrance level comprises an entrance hall, a wonderful open plan kitchen with appliances included, living and dining room with access to a balcony, a double bedroom and a bathroom with a white suite. As you go up the stairs there is access to eaves storage before you arrive at the spacious master bedroom which benefits from a modern en-suite shower room.

From the living space you have access to a lovely balcony that is the perfect place to relax and watch the sunset. There is plenty of resident parking available and communal gardens.

A deposit and the first month's rent are payable in advance. The property is unfurnished and available from 1st October 2025.
