Nestled in the heart of Comber, this charming ground floor apartment provides prospective tenants with a peaceful living space. The property has been recently refurbished to include painting throughout, new carpets and newly installed gas boiler.

As you step inside, you are greeted by a spacious lounge with a feature fireplace leading to a modern fitted kitchen with white goods included. This apartment boasts two excellent sized bedrooms both with built in storage. A generous four piece bathroom completes this excellent apartment.

Benefiting from gas-fired central heating, this property ensures warmth and comfort throughout the year. Additionally, a designated car parking space offers convenience for residents.

Situated in a popular locality, this apartment provides easy access to essential amenities such as the town centre, Health Centre, and the Library. Ideal for those seeking a quiet and convenient lifestyle.

A deposit and the first month's rent are payable in advance. The property is unfurnished and available 27th of June 2026.
