Welcome to Walmer!

A charming two bedroom mid-terrace property nestled just off the bustling Ormeau Road, offering a perfect blend of comfort and convenience. With this property being situated in a popular location it is sure to attract interest from first time buyers, professional couple and investors alike.

Downstairs comprises an open-plan living and dining area with a wood affect floor, creating an inviting ambiance. The focal point of this space is the feature fireplace housing a wood-burning stove, perfect for cozy evenings. The kitchen area benefits from high and low level units and is equipped with plumbing for white goods and a built in oven and hob.

Upstairs you'll find two generously sized bedrooms and a bathroom that features a three-piece suite. Additionally, the spacious landing area could accommodate a home office, making it an ideal setup for remote work or study.

This property also benefits from a yard area allowing for an added storage area. The oil fired central heating system and the double glazing throughout ensures warmth and comfort throughout the year

The Ormeau Road is a short stroll away offering a host of amenities and access to frequent local transport in and out of Belfast City Centre. There are some excellent bars and shops to enjoy and Ormeau Park is a delightful place to stretch the legs.
