This is an exceptional opportunity to rent a beautifully presented property located in a highly sought-after area of South Belfast. The property is ideally positioned within easy walking distance of the wide range of amenities on the Ormeau Road and benefits from excellent transport links, providing a straightforward commute to Belfast city centre. Forestside Shopping Centre is also just a short drive away.

The accommodation has been finished to a high standard throughout and comprises a bright and spacious living room open plan to a stylish dining area, complemented by a contemporary fitted kitchen complete with quality appliances. There are two generous double bedrooms, with master tastefully furnished, along with a modern bathroom featuring a sleek white three-piece suite.

Externally, the property benefits from a private, enclosed rear yard, ideal for outdoor use, while ample on-street parking is available to the front.

The property is furnished to a high standard and is presented in excellent condition throughout. A deposit and the first month's rent are payable in advance. Available immediately.
