Have I Got Views For You!

Occupying an exceptional elevated position within a quiet cul-de-sac, this charming home offers spacious accommodation, breathtaking panoramic views, and a beautifully tiered garden, features that are rarely found in today's market.

Set on a mature and generous site, the property enjoys stunning vistas across Belfast and beyond, creating a truly picturesque setting for everyday living. Internally, the accommodation briefly comprises two well-proportioned reception areas, one of which benefits from a feature fireplace. The kitchen includes the casual dining area, access to the rear garden and a useful lean-to porch/utility area. A convenient ground floor cloakroom provides additional storage space.

Upstairs, there are three generously sized bedrooms, including a principal bedroom that enjoys superb elevated views across Greater Belfast and a family bathroom with a coloured suite.

Externally, the property is surrounded by extensive gardens, featuring well-maintained lawns and paved patio areas—perfect for relaxing or entertaining while enjoying the peaceful surroundings. There is also a detached garage with light, heat and power.

Ample parking for multiple vehicles adds to the convenience, while the home's excellent potential offers the opportunity to modernise and tailor the space to suit your own style and needs.

This is a fantastic opportunity to acquire a home with outstanding views and endless potential. Early viewing is highly recommended to fully appreciate all that this property has to offer.
