Whinney Hill is a particularly desirable location, providing an authentic rural feel but just a stone's throw from the town of Holywood and within close commuting distance to Belfast and beyond.

The lively coastal town of Holywood has long established itself as a desirable place to live, a fact that has confirmed by The Sunday Times who named it 'the best place to live in Northern Ireland in 2021'.

The town is a perfect composition of chic boutiques, elegant award winning eateries and traditional pubs, resulting in a town centre that is a hub of activity. Independent shops are at its heart, with the thriving community keen to support local retailers. This makes the shopping experience wonderfully unique, drawing visitors from the surrounding areas.

The abundance of beaches & coastal paths, local parks and woodlands in the area offers the perfect balance to town life. Sporting facilities are plentiful, with sailing, golf and rugby being particularly well catered for, in addition to private health clubs and leisure facilities.

Holywood's great road, rail and air links offer ease of commute for those who work in the nearby areas and beyond - it's only 10 minutes from the city centre and 5 mins from George Best airport.
