THE LOCAL AREA

Millisle is a small seaside village on the east coast of the Ards Peninsula in County Down, Northern Ireland. Known for its sandy beach and sheltered seawater lagoon, it's a popular spot for family days out, coastal walks, and picnics. The village has a relaxed, friendly atmosphere, with a few local cafés, shops, and attractions such as the historic Ballycopeland Windmill. Rich in local heritage — including its role in sheltering Jewish refugees during World War II — Millisle offers a blend of natural beauty, quiet charm, and meaningful history along the scenic Irish Sea coast.
