This is a truly outstanding four bedroom detached family home which is currently a showhouse is immaculately presented and has been finished to an exacting standard throughout. Having been constructed summer 2024 by well renowned construction company, Glenoak Developments, the property itself extends to approximately 1735 sq ft of luxury living space and has been finished to an exceptional finish and high specification right through. Internally the property is both bright and spacious and has been creatively and beautifully presented creating a contemporary flow. Located in a development of family residences, the property has been designed with modern and traditional themes offering a warm and stylish atmosphere in every room. Externally the property is laid in lawn to front and rear with tarmac driveway. Location wise, the property will ensure ease of access to the commuter via main arterial routes to Belfast and Londonderry and being located so close to Coleraine town centre, local amenities are only a short walk away. This is a fantastic opportunity to acquire a fabulous family home of exceptional design and quality all round.

Travelling along Lodge Road past the former Coleraine Grammar School, Boundary Lodge will be located on your left after the turn off for Nursey Avenue. No 12 (site 7) will be located bottom right corner of the development.
