

Approx. 25 acres of productive agricultural grazing land, comprising gently undulating pasture that is ideal for livestock grazing. The land is versatile in nature and suitable for a range of agricultural uses, offering flexibility for a variety of farming operations.

Set within a peaceful rural location, the property enjoys attractive open countryside views, providing a tranquil and private environment. There is potential for diversification, subject to the necessary planning consents, making it an appealing opportunity for those seeking to maximise the land's potential.

The property is ideally suited for smallholding, hobby farming, or the expansion of an existing farming enterprise, and is offered with vacant possession upon completion.
