OFFERS AROUND £315,000

If you thought you have everything you wanted, we suggest a viewing of this immaculate detached property might just change your mind, as perfection has obviously been the present owners' focus when it came to presenting their home. The overall impression is one of ultimate comfort and modern day convenience that comfortably blends with the subtle choice of decor. The location, which was developed in the last few years, has matured relatively quickly to provide a residential location that combines a sought after quality of lifestyle with the all important convenience of ease of access to the most popular arterial routes for those on the daily commute to North Down's major towns and Belfast.

We feel strongly you'd be doing yourself a injustice if you didn't at least come and look at what's on offer, but be warned, if you do, you'll undoubtedly want what you see.
