43 Ballyclander Road, Downpatrick, BT30 7DE

This outstanding historic 300-year-old property was fully restored in 2009 and offers excellent accommodation and the innate character is complemented by many individual design features. The accommodation comprises an impressive reception hall, spacious mezzanine lounge and well fitted kitchen with island unit, living and dining areas. There are 5 ensuite bedrooms and a study/utility room. The mature gardens with patio and cooking area offer delightful environs with a lovely seating area adjacent to the boundary stream. There are separate buildings in the site which could be adapted to a courtyard work from home space or air bnb accommodation (subject to the appropriate statutory approvals). This home is currently operating as a successful Writers Retreat and the accommodation and gardens understandably provide stimulus and inspiration. The excellent Co. Down schools, parks, clubs and amenities are within easy commuting distance.
